

May 1, 1973
for release upon receipt

LOVE 100 DIFFERENT WAYS AT S.G.W.U.

Many are the ways of love, as Sir George Williams University's Conservatory of Cinematographic Art will show during the months of May and June.

100 films will be presented, tracing the evolution of love on the silver screen. These range from "The Kiss," Edison's 1896 25-second exotic nibble, through the more blatant European eroticism of the sixties. On the way there will be several looks at Clara Bow, Valentino, Louise Brooks, Garbo, Dietrich, Elizabeth Taylor, Marilyn Monroe and Brigitte Bardot.

It all happens May 2 to July 1 in the main auditorium of the Hall Building, de Maisonneuve at Bishop.

Despite rising costs, love at Sir George remains reasonable - 50¢ for students, 75¢ non-students.

-30-

Malcolm Stone
Information Officer

Note: Schedule out soon; last-minute info from CC of A, 879-4349.